—From a United Press intermetional interview by Edward K. Dobong with Victor Marchetti who guit the CIA after working there 14 years. The full text of the interview was published in U.S. News & World Report, Oct. 11, 1971.

"Marchotti said areas where the CIA might launch future clandestine paramilitary activities include South America, India, Africa and the Philippines — all STATINTL places in the threes of social upheaval. Upheaval, he said, is what prempts the CIA director to begin planning clandestine activities in a country....

"In addition to Air America, Marchetti said, the CIA has set up both Southern Air Transport in Miami and Recky Mountain Air in Phoenix for possible use in paramilitary operations in South America. Similar false airlines have been bought and sold all over the world, he said, including one in Nepal and another in Bast Africa."
